

CAREER OPPORTUNITY

February 18th, 2009

Alberta Investment Management Corporation, Edmonton –

Are you a seasoned financial management professional looking for an exciting and rewarding career? Here's an opportunity to apply your leadership expertise in a unique and growing environment.

AIMCo is an Alberta crown corporation managing investments of approximately $70 billion on behalf of a number of public sector pension, endowment and special purpose funds held across a wide variety of asset classes.

Manager, Fund Management:

With a broad investment background and strong research skills, you will undertake research in the areas of risk management, investment policy and total fund management, supporting the development of new products and total fund strategies. Reporting to the Senior Vice President of Fund Management, this position is expected to demonstrate a strong understanding of risk management and its application at the total fund level in order to analyze sources of risk within client portfolios and ensure risk exposures align with investment objectives. The manager will also be involved in reporting to client funds and will assist in the production of investment income forecasts on the endowment funds for inclusion in the AIMCo budget.

Qualifications:

University graduate in Business or Economics or equivalent, supplemented by 5 to 7 years of investment experience at the total fund and investment policy level. An MBA or CFA designation will be an asset. Equivalencies will be considered. Candidates with less experience may be considered at a lower level.

NOTE: Final candidates will be asked to undergo a security screening.
