Investment Analyst (Ad# 6867)

North Vancouver

ICBC manages a seven billion dollar fixed income portfolio and we are looking to add an Investment Analyst to our team. This role is ideal for someone with a strong interest in building their career in this industry to be a contributing member of our investment team conducting research and analysis to identify risks and opportunities and generate critical information in support of investment strategies, planning and decisions.

Your responsibilities will include:

- Conducts research to gather information in support of corporate credit and investment-related risk analysis. Involves developing and interacting with multiple external sources and contacts at all levels to discuss and extract information.
- Performs analysis to identify risks and opportunities and generate critical information in support of short and long-term investment strategies, planning and decisions. Involves developing models, performing quantitative/qualitative analysis, documenting findings, and preparing recommendations in reports and presentations.
- Participates in evaluating changes in the economic, legislative or business environment, which are likely to have an impact on investment strategy.
- Presents results of research, analysis and evaluations to an internal investment committee, providing explanations, rationale, and recommendations. Also interacts with investment staff at all levels to discuss and alert them to findings and observations.
- Researches best practice and recommends appropriate application in the development of procedures, policies and standards for the department.

You have an MBA and or undergraduate degree in Finance, Economics or Accounting augmented by several years of relevant work experience. Ideally you will be working towards completion of the CFA designation. You have strong organizational skills and the ability to work independently, as well as excellent communication and problem-solving skills.

As a valued member of the ICBC team, you'll thrive in a performance-driven environment that emphasizes employee leadership and accountability for delivering results. Anticipate a competitive salary, comprehensive benefits and a challenging work environment.

If you're ready to join a driven team, we'd love to hear from you. For full details on this and all other current positions visit www.icbc.com.
